- c) determine by resolution whether to confirm or to revoke the resolution.
- 8.1.6. If at the meeting of the committee, the committee confirms the resolution, the member may, not later than 48 hours after that meeting, give the Secretary a notice to the effect that he or she wishes to appeal to the Association in general meeting against the resolution
- 8.1.7. If the Secretary receives a notice under sub-rule 8.1.6, he or she must notify the committee and the committee must convene a general meeting of the Association to be held within 21 days after the date on which the Secretary received the notice.
- 8.1.8. At a general meeting of the Association convened under sub-rule 8.1.7-
 - a) business other than the question of the appeal may be conducted; and
 - b) the committee may place before the meeting details of the grounds for the resolution and the reasons for the passing of the resolution; and
 - c) the member, or his or her representative, must be given an opportunity to be heard and
 - d) the members present must vote by secret ballot on the question whether the resolution should be confirmed or revoked.
- 8.1.9. A resolution is confirmed if, at the general meeting, not less than two-thirds of the members vote in person, or by proxy, in favour of the resolution. In any other case, the resolution is revoked.

9. Disputes and mediation

- 9.1.1. The grievance procedure set out in this rule applies to disputes under these Rules between-
 - a) a member and another member; or
 - b) a member and the Association.
- 9.1.2. The parties to the dispute must meet and discuss the matter in dispute, and, if possible, resolve the dispute within 14 days after the dispute comes to the attention of all of the parties.
- 9.1.3. If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute at the meeting, or if a party fails to attend that meeting, then the parties must, within 10 days, hold a meeting in the presence of a mediator.
- 9.1.4. The mediator must be-
 - a) a person chosen by agreement between the parties;
 - b) or in the absence of agreement-
 - i. in the case of a dispute between a member and another member, a person appointed by the committee of the Association; or
 - ii. in the case of a dispute between a member and the Association, an independent arbitrator/mediator acceptable to both parties.
- 9.1.5. A member of the Association can be a mediator.
- 9.1.6. The mediator cannot be a member who is a party to the dispute.
- 9.1.7. The parties to the dispute must, in good faith, attempt to settle the dispute by mediation.
- 9.1.8. The mediator, in conducting the mediation, must—
 - a) Give the parties to the mediation process every opportunity to be heard; and
 - b) Allow due consideration by all parties of any written statement submitted by any party; and
 - c) Ensure that natural justice is accorded to the parties to the dispute throughout the mediation process

9.1.9. The mediator must not determine the dispute.

9.1.10. If the mediation process does not result in the dispute being resolved, the parties may seek to resolve the dispute in accordance with the Act or otherwise at law.

10. Annual general meetings

10.1.1. The committee may determine the date, time and place of the annual general meeting of the Association and must be held within four months of the Financial Year.

10.1.2. The notice convening the annual general meeting must specify that the meeting is an annual general meeting.

10.1.3. The ordinary business of the annual general meeting shall be-

- a) to confirm the minutes of the previous annual general meeting and of any general meeting held since that meeting; and
- b) to receive from the committee reports upon the transactions of the Association during the last preceding financial year; and
- c) to elect office bearers of the Association and the ordinary members of the committee; and
- d) to receive and consider the statement submitted by the Association in accordance with the Act.

10.1.4. The annual general meeting may conduct any special business of which notice has been given in accordance with these Rules.

11. Special general meetings

11.1.1. In addition to the annual general meeting, any other general meetings may be held in the same year.

11.1.2. All general meetings other than the annual general meeting are special general meetings.

11.1.3. The committee may, whenever it thinks fit, convene a special general meeting of the Association.

11.1.4. If, but for this sub-rule, more than 15 months would elapse between annual general meetings, the committee must convene a special general meeting before the expiration of that period.

11.1.5. The committee must, on the request in writing of members representing not less than 50 full members eligible to vote or 10 per cent of the total number of full members eligible to vote, convene a special general meeting of the Association.

11.1.6. The request for a special general meeting must—

- a) state the objects of the meeting; and
- b) be signed by the members requesting the meeting; and
- c) be sent to the address of the Secretary.

11.1.7. If the committee does not cause a special general meeting to be held within one month after the date on which the request is sent to the address of the Secretary, the members making the request, or any of them, may convene a special general meeting to be held not later than 3 months after that date.

11.1.8. If a special general meeting is convened by members in accordance with this rule, it must be convened in the same manner so far as possible as a meeting convened by the committee and all reasonable expenses incurred in convening the special general meeting must be refunded by the Association to the persons incurring the expenses.

12. Special business

All business that is conducted at a special general meeting and all business that is conducted at the annual general meeting, except for business conducted under the rules as ordinary business of the annual general meeting, is deemed to be special business.

13. Notice of general meetings

13.1.1. The Secretary of the Association, at least 14 days, or if a special resolution has been proposed at least 21 days, before the date fixed for holding a general meeting of the Association, must cause to be sent to each member of the Association, a notice stating the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature of the business to be conducted at the meeting.

13.1.2. Notice may be sent—

- a) by prepaid post to the address appearing in the register of members; or
- b) by facsimile transmission or electronic transmission.

13.1.3. No business other than that set out in the notice convening the meeting may be conducted at the meeting.

13.1.4. A member intending to bring any business before a meeting may notify in writing, or by electronic transmission, the Secretary of that business, who must include that business in the notice calling the next general meeting.

14. Quorum at general meetings

14.1.1. No item of business may be conducted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members entitled under these Rules to vote is present at the time when the meeting is considering that item.

14.1.2. Fifty members or 10 % of full members eligible to vote, whichever is less personally present constitute a quorum for the conduct of the business of a general meeting.

14.1.3. If, within half an hour after the appointed time for the commencement of a general meeting, a quorum is not present-

- a) in the case of a meeting convened upon the request of members--the meeting must be dissolved; and
- b) in any other case--the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and (unless another place is specified by the Chairperson at the time of the adjournment or by written notice to members given before the day to which the meeting is adjourned) at the same place.

14.1.4. If at the adjourned meeting the quorum is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the members personally present (being not less than 3) shall be a quorum.

15. Presiding at general meetings

15.1.1. The President, or in the President's absence, an elected Vice-President, shall preside as Chairperson at each general meeting of the Association.

15.1.2. If the President and all elected Vice-Presidents are absent from a general meeting, or are unable to preside, the members present must select one of their number to preside as Chairperson.

16. Adjournment of meetings

16.1.1. The person presiding may, with the consent of a majority of members present at the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place.

16.1.2. No business may be conducted at an adjourned meeting other than the unfinished business from the meeting that was adjourned.

16.1.3. If a meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given in accordance with rule 14.

16.1.4. Except as provided in sub-rule 16.1.3, it is not necessary to give notice of an adjournment or of the business to be conducted at an adjourned meeting.

17. Voting at general meetings

17.1.1. Upon any question arising at a general meeting of the Association, a member has one vote only.

17.1.2. All votes must be given personally or by proxy.

17.1.3. In the case of an equality of voting on a question, the Chairperson of the meeting is entitled to exercise a second or casting vote.

17.1.4. A member is not entitled to vote at a general meeting unless all moneys due and payable by the member to the Association have been paid, other than the amount of the annual subscription payable in respect of the current financial year.

18. Poll at general meetings

18.1.1. If at a meeting a poll on any question is demanded by not less than 3 members, it must be taken at that meeting in such manner as the Chairperson may direct and the resolution of the poll shall be deemed to be a resolution of the meeting on that question.

18.1.2. A poll that is demanded on the election of a Chairperson or on a question of an adjournment must be taken immediately and a poll that is demanded on any other question must be taken at such time before the close of the meeting as the Chairperson may direct.

19. Manner of determining whether resolution carried

19.1.1. If a question arising at a general meeting of the Association is determined on a show of hands-

- a) A declaration by the Chairperson that a resolution has been-
 - i. carried;
 - ii. carried unanimously;
 - iii. carried by a particular majority; or
 - iv. lost; and

- b) An entry to that effect in the minute book of the Association-- is evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, that resolution.

20. Proxies

20.1.1. Each member is entitled to appoint another member as a proxy by notice given to the Secretary no later than 24 hours before the time of the meeting in respect of which the proxy is appointed.

- a) The notice appointing the proxy must be in the form set out in Appendix 3.

21. Committee of Management

21.1.1. The affairs of the Association shall be managed by the committee of management which consist of members as stipulated in 24.1.1.

21.1.2. In the year of inception the number of members in the committee may exceed the number stipulated in sub rule 24.11. in accordance with sub rule 23.1.1

21.1.3. The committee—

- a) shall control and manage the business and affairs of the Association; and
- b) may, subject to these Rules, the Act and the Regulations, exercise all such powers and functions as may be exercised by the Association other than those powers and functions that are required by these Rules to be exercised by general meetings of the members of the Association; and
